

CV of Xiao Tianliang

Xiao Tianliang, president of National Defense University, rank of lieutenant general, doctor of military science, professor, doctoral supervisor, academic leader of military strategy. He once served as acting deputy chief of staff of the South China Sea Fleet and director of the Strategy Department of the National Defense University. He has been engaged in the teaching and research of military strategy for a long time, and has published academic works such as Strategy, Research on War Control, Non-war Application of Military Forces, and Military Diplomacy of New China. He was invited to visit Georgetown University and gave lectures in Japan, Zambia, Tunisia and other countries. He has won the Military Talent Cultivation Gold Award, Military Science and Technology Progress Award, National Teaching Achievement Award and PLA Book Award. "Strategy Science" won the first prize of teaching achievements of the PLA and the first prize of the first National Teaching material Construction Award. In August 2014 and July 2021, the collective study of the Political Bureau of the CPC Central Committee.