SINGAPORE - Malaysia and Singapore mutually suspended the implementation of their overlapping port limits on Monday (April 8), going back to the port limits in place prior to Oct 25, 2018 and Dec 6, 2018 respectively.

"This was agreed upon by the Foreign Ministers of Singapore and Malaysia on March 14, to de-escalate the situation on the ground and pave the way for maritime boundary delimitation."

The background of the slide is a composite image. On the left, there are soldiers in green camouflage uniforms. In the center, a group of soldiers in similar uniforms are smiling and looking towards the right. On the right side, there is a large crowd of people, many of whom are raising their hands in a gesture of support or celebration. The overall tone is positive and collaborative.
