

TIMOR-LESTE

NATIONAL DEFENCE INSTITUTE (IDN)

25th HDUCIM Topic 3: Enhancing collaboration Among Defence
Universities/Colleges/Institutions for the Fusion and Integration of Peace Education

CONTENTS

- ① Overview of IDN
- ② Key Functions
- ③ Curriculums
- ④ Partnerships
- ⑤ Conclusion

Overview of IDN

- 1 The Timor-Leste National Defence Institute (IDN) is a premier institution dedicated to the advancement of peace and security in Timor-Leste
- 2 Established in [2010], IDN serves as a hub for research, education, and training in defence-related fields.
- 3 It operates under the purview of the Ministry of Defence and Security.
- 4 IDN collaborates with various national and international partners to promote peace education and build a culture of peace in the region.

ORGANIZATION

the Decree-Law 12/2010 of August 26

OBJECTIVES

IDN aims to provide high-quality training, research, and analysis in the field of defense and security.

Its objectives include fostering a comprehensive understanding of national and international security challenges, promoting strategic thinking, and enhancing decision-making capacities.

KEY FUNCTIONS

IDN performs a range of crucial functions to fulfill its objectives:

1. Research and Analysis: Conducts studies and analysis on defense and security matters.
2. Training and Education: Provides specialized training programs to military and civilian personnel.
3. Policy Development: Assists in formulating national defense and security policies.
4. International Cooperation: Collaborates with international institutions to exchange knowledge and expertise.
5. Public Engagement: Promotes public awareness and understanding of defense and security issues.

IDN offers various training programs to develop human resources in defense and security:

1

Professional Courses: Equips military and civilian personnel with essential skills and knowledge.

2

Workshops and Seminars: Facilitates discussions on emerging defense and security challenges.

3

Leadership Development: Enhances leadership qualities and strategic thinking among participants.

CURRICULUMS

01

Junior Staff Course

02

Joint And Integrated Staff Course

03

Postgraduate: In Strategic Studies and National Resilience

04

Postgraduate: In Maritime Study

05

Masters Course: National Security and Sustainable Development

06

Municipal Authorities Course

RESEARCH AND ANALYSIS

IDN conducts research and analysis on defense and security matters:

- 01 Timorese Security Landscape: Assesses internal and external security threats.
- 02 Defense Policy Analysis: Analyzes defense policies and recommends strategic approaches.
- 03 Conflict Resolution: Explores mechanisms to resolve conflicts and promote peace.

PARTNERSHIPS

NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

- ❑ IDN has taken several initiatives to enhance collaboration among defence institutions for the infusion and integration of peace education.
- ❑ The establishment of a network of partner institutions committed to peace education and conflict resolution.
- ❑ Regular workshops, seminars, and conferences to facilitate knowledge sharing and collaboration.
- ❑ Joint research projects on peace education and the development of curriculum guidelines.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

IDN actively engages in international cooperation to enhance its capabilities:

Knowledge Exchange

Collaborates with international defense institutes and organizations.

Training Programs

Participates in joint training exercises and capacity-building initiatives.

Multilateral Forums

Represents Timor-Leste in regional and international security forums.

Collaboration among defence universities, colleges, and institutions is crucial for the infusion and integration of peace education.

CONTRIBUTION TO TIMOR-LESTE

IDN's work significantly contributes to Timor-Leste's defense and security sector:

IDNs

Institutional Development: Strengthens the capacity of defense and security institutions.

Policy Formulation: Supports evidence-based policy development in defense and security.

National Security Preparedness: Enhances the country's ability to respond to security threats.

CONCLUSION

- 1 The Timor-Leste National Defence Institute (IDN) plays a pivotal role in advancing defense and security capabilities.
- 2 Through its training programs, research, and international cooperation, IDN contributes to the consolidation of Timor-Leste's democratic state and the protection of its sovereignty.
- 3 IDN remains committed to fostering a comprehensive understanding of defense and security challenges and enhancing the capabilities of its personnel and institutions.

THANK YOU!